

3-A-Day of Dairy Nutrition Education

2007 Grant Program

3-A-Day of Dairy Nutrition Education
2007 Grant Program

Overview

The National Dairy Council's Nutrition Education Grant program addresses America's low calcium intake and supports the philosophy of the nutrition-based marketing and consumer education program, "3-A-Day of Dairy."

Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada will award two $5,000 grants to organizations or individuals proposing nutrition education programs to help empower kids to be advocates for healthy eating, including three servings of dairy a day. Applicants are encouraged to create a program designed for implementation within the school environment and to collaborate with schools and other community-based initiatives such as Action for Healthy Kids or Team Nutrition.

Information about the 3-A-Day of Dairy nutrition education campaign can be found at www.dairycouncilutnv.org. If you do not have Internet access, please contact the Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada main office at 801.487.9976.

About the National Dairy Council®

Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada is an affiliate of the National Dairy Council® (NDC). NDC was formed in 1915 to initiate and administer nutrition research, implement cutting-edge nutrition education programs and communicate dairy nutrition messages to consumers, classroom teachers, health professionals, school foodservice personnel, consumer and health media and other important groups, including third-party gatekeepers in nutrition and health. It is focused on scientific research, educational outreach to schools and health professionals and nutrition education-based public relations, all working in tandem to promote dairy foods consumption.

NDC fulfills an important role as a national leader in nutrition education and research by serving as the authoritative voice on issues related to dairy nutrition, diet and health. Thanks to the sound science dairy farmers fund through NDC, the organization maintains consistent credibility with print and broadcast media, classroom teachers, health and school foodservice professionals, and consumers. The National Dairy Council is managed by Dairy Management, Inc. TM

Evaluation and Selection Criteria

- The 3-A-Day of Dairy grants are open to all groups or individuals in the United States, including those self-employed, commissioned by or employed by organizations of local government, state and local health departments, regional and state agencies and schools, medical facilities and extension specialists. Grants are also open to past 3-A-Day of Dairy grant winners.
- Program proposals must include specific educational and behavioral objectives targeting children (ages 9-18) or a subgroup within this age range, and the results must be measurable (e.g. show improved consumption of domestically produced cow's milk, cheese and/or yogurt) and have the potential to be replicated. Consideration will also be given to the methods used (validated v. non-validated) and the ability to leverage and communicate the results to a wider audience.
- Programs must be original and creative in design and program implementation.

- Programs must be implemented within the school environment (i.e., public school, private school, after-school program, etc.) during the 2007-2008 school year.
- Programs must include at least one (1) element that empowers kids to be advocates for healthy eating, including three servings of dairy a day.
- Programs must aim to increase milk, cheese or yogurt consumption (or “intake”) to at least three servings per day and change behavior through the design and implementation of one or more educational activities.
- Programs must focus on increasing milk, cheese or yogurt consumption to at least three servings per day with emphasis on lowfat and fat free products to be consistent with the USDA food guidance system, Dietary Guidelines for Americans, and the 3-A-Day of Dairy nutrition education program.
- Programs receiving financial assistance shall not exclude from participation, deny benefits to or discriminate against any person or institution on the basis of race, color, age, sex, religion, national origin or physical handicap in accordance with Federal statutes and regulations and NDC policies.

Selection Process

- Applications will be evaluated and selected by Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada and a panel of health professionals and educators.
- Grant proposal/applications must be postmarked by April 6, 2007.
- Successful applicants or Grantees will be notified on or around May 11, 2007. Grantees will be required to sign the 3-A-Day of Dairy Nutrition Education Grant Program Agreement, which provides that the Grantee will use all grant funds for the purposes specified in the grant award and will comply with all terms and conditions of the grant.

Acknowledgement and Disclaimer

Any publication or disclosure based on the education program or program activities supported by the 3-A-Day of Dairy Nutrition Education Grant Program must contain the following acknowledgment:

“This [publication/program/activity/film/video/Web site/event] was made possible by a grant from the Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada.”

All publications or program materials must contain the following statement:

“Any opinions, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this [publication/program/activity/film/video/Web site/event] are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent those of the Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada.”

Publication and Distribution

NDC and Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada may publish, distribute and make available to the public the names of Grantees and the results and or outcomes of the program or any research performed under the 3-A-Day of Dairy Nutrition Education Grant Program. Generally, the publication shall be in journals, on the NDC Web site (www.nationaldairycouncil.org) and/or in similar media.

NDC retains all rights and interests in the program materials, publications and/or works as described in the 3-A-Day of Dairy Nutrition Education Grant Program Agreement, incorporated herein by reference. Therefore, the successful applicant or Grantee agrees to obtain advance written approval from NDC for any commercial publication or distribution of any and all program materials or works created, in whole or in part, through the use of the grant funds. Program materials or associated works may include, but are not limited to, papers, proceedings, films, videos, recordings, games, computer programs, internet Web sites and or Web pages.

If, as part of the grant proposal, the applicant contemplates that materials or works such as books, manuals, periodicals, computer programs, videos, etc. will be developed and sold to third parties or commercialized in any manner, the proposal should address: (1) the means by which the materials or works will be advertised, marketed, sold or used for commercial gain and (2) the disposition of proceeds from commercialization efforts.

After Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada makes the grant award, the Grantee agrees and must obtain NDC's prior approval for each instance of commercialization.

Inventions, Software and Copyrights

Dairy Council of Utah/Nevada reserves all rights described in the 3-A-Day of Dairy Nutrition Education Grant Program Agreement, including the right of access to data within data banks and computer software created or supported by the Grantee due to the use of grant funds.

Where appropriate, NDC retains ownership of all copyrights in program materials, publications and/or works created, in whole or in part, through the use of grant funds as defined in the 3-A-Day of Dairy Nutrition Education Grant Program Agreement.
